"Aprepos of the position of the Middendorf and Williams firms, I will say that everything is progressing in a satisfactory manner. The firms have securities of great value, which are far in excess of their liabilities. They did not thin't it was fitting and proper to attempt to negotiate a sale of any of those securities in such an abnormally depressed stock market as they have witnessed during the last three months. To have done so would only have sacrificed values without any resulting good. With the return of abnormal securities market and with confidence of the public restored everything will be all right."

Mr. Williams also said that as long as his interests in Seabourd were as large as they were at present he would continue to be president of the railroad.

The State campaign will open up formally some time next week and Democratic headquarters will be here as usual. Chaldman Ellyson is in a most confident mood, concerning the result this fall, though he realizes that in some sections, especially in the Valley and the Southwest, the Democratis will have to fight in order to win. Mr. Ellyson will likely announce some speaking appointments early next week.

MR. HANKINS' LETTER.

Mr. Hankins' letter of resignation to Chairman Ellyson, is as follows:

Hichmond, Va., Oct. 5, 1993.

Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, Chairman of the State Democratic Committee, Richmond, Va.:

My Dear Mr. Ellyson,—Owing to the unusual amount of work incumbent upon me in connection with the preparation of the annual report of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and the fact that it must be done at once, I am forced to tender to you my resignation as secretary of the State Democratic Committee, knowing that it will be impossible for me to give that attention to the work that it must bave, and that you will need a man who can give it his time and attention.

I want to express to you my appreciation of the confidence you have reposed in me by this appointment, and to say that my relations have been of the most pleasant and cordial, and the work one of love, and to request that you shall not hesitate to call on me hereafter to do such work as it shall be in my power to do.

With kind personal regards, believe me, always,

J. G. HANKINS.

Very truly yours, J. G. HANKINS.
